

The Jewish World of Jesus

An Online Workshop by Dr. Malka Z. Simkovich

August 11, 2020 from 6:00-7:30pm

What were the core beliefs and practices of Jewish life in Judea and elsewhere in the Greco-Roman world? What “made” someone a Jew in the first century? This online workshop by Dr. Malka Z. Simkovich of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago will explore early Jewish texts that shed light upon the beliefs and practices common to all Jews in the ancient world. By studying the texts, this workshop will also shed new light on the Jewish context of Jesus’ teachings, helping to present a fuller picture of the context of his life and ministry.

Hosted by Jordan Ministry Team

The cost for the workshop is $10.00. The session will be held online via Zoom; the required link and any materials will be emailed to registered participants before the session; please register on or before August 10. To learn more, visit: www.JordanMinistryTeam.org/upcoming-events.
