St. Francis de Sales Doctor of the Church

Part I

François de Sales (August 21, 1567 – December 28, 1622), Bishop of Geneva, spiritual director, and Doctor of the Church lived during one the most turbulent periods in the history of Western Christianity. Fifty years earlier, a German friar named Martin Luther had declared his break with the Catholic Church, sparking the Protestant Reformation. Religious divisions and civil wars characterized Western Europe throughout most of the 16th and 17th centuries. Although Francis's homeland, the Duchy of Savoy, remained under Catholic rule, neighboring Geneva was occupied by the Calvinists. The last Bishop to reside in Geneva was forced into exile in 1533, and the Genevan City Council abolished the Mass two years later. Consequently, Saint Peter's Cathedral in Geneva became the home church of John Calvin, while the bishops of Geneva were forced to preside at the Cathedral of Annecy in south-eastern France.

Nevertheless, Francis de Sales was always prepared to give an answer for the hope that was in him (cf. 1 Peter 3:15). Though born into a noble family and destined for the magistrate's court, Francis felt a calling to the priesthood. He desired to share with others the love of God that he had discovered as a young man. Against his father's wishes, Francis gave the rights to his inheritance to his younger brother Louis.

St. Francisco de Sales...Continued from cover

When Francis was only nineteen years old, he suffered a brief period of spiritual darkness after attending a debate about predestination. The doctrine of predestination divided not only Catholics and Protestants but also Dominicans and Jesuits. All theologians, it seemed, were concerned about the role of the human will in divine salvation. Calvinists ascribed to the strictest teachings about predestination. They taught that God predestined some people to salvation and predestined the rest to eternal condemnation. Francis was deeply troubled by the implications of such a teaching. However, in January 1587, while dedicating himself to the Blessed Virgin Mary before the Black Madonna at the Church of St. Etienne-des-Grè, Francis discovered that "God is Love." This realization inspired his ordination in 1593 and subsequent mission to the people of the Chablais, a formerly Catholic region of eastern France.

Part II continues next week.

Thank you, Fariba Kanga, for researching, translating from the French this passage from "Introduction to the Devout Life" and from the Latin the quote from St. Vincent de Paul, and writing about St. Francis de Sales.

"When you encounter difficulties and contradictions, do not try to break them, but bend them with gentleness and time."
– St. Francis de Sales (Feast Day – January 24)

Reserving Rooms for Group Events

Has your group's room reservation expired?
If you don't see your group's meeting or event listed in the weekly calendar in the green box on the next page, it's because the room reservation is not on the parish schedule.

Coordinators and leaders of organizations, ministries, or groups who use parish facilities on an ongoing basis, please be sure that reservations for meeting rooms have been submitted to Maria in the Parish Office, and are according to the group's "up to date" scheduling. For insurance purposes, use of a meeting room must be registered in our parish's scheduler.

In the course of the year, if your group is not going to be using reserved rooms, please let Maria know so that the reservation can be removed and the room made available to others who may be in need of a space for their meeting.

San Francisco de Sales...Continuación de la portada

Cuando Francisco tenía solo diecinueve años, sufrió un breve período de oscuridad espiritual después de asistir a un debate sobre la predestinación. La doctrina de la predestinación dividió no sólo a católicos y protestantes, sino también a dominicos y jesuitas. Todos los teólogos, al parecer, estaban preocupados por el papel de la voluntad humana en la salvación divina. Los calvinistas adscribieron a las más estrictas enseñanzas sobre la predestinación. Enseñaron que Dios predestinó a algunas personas a la salvación y predestinó al resto a la condenación eterna. Francis estaba profundamente preocupado por las implicaciones de tal enseñanza. Sin embargo, en enero de 1587, mientras se consagraba a la Santísima Virgen María ante la Virgen Negra en la iglesia de St. Etienne-des-Grè, Francisco descubrió que "Dios es amor". Esta realización inspiró su ordenación en 1593 y la posterior misión a la gente de Chablais, una antigua región católica del este de Francia.

La Parte II continúa la próxima semana.

Gracias, Fariba Kanga, por investigar, traducir del francés este pasaje de "Introducción a la vida devota" y del latín la cita de San Vicente de Paúl, y escribir sobre San Francisco de Sales.

"Cuando usted se encuentre en medio de dificultades y contradicciones no trate de romperlas, más bien dóblelas con tiempo y suavidad."
– San Francis de Sales (Día de la Fiesta – 24 de enero)
